ORCHARD CENTRE EXPANSION PLANS

By Jack Johnson

jack@taylornewspapers.co.uk

A MARKS & SPENCER food shop has been unveiled as the flagship store for the second phase of the Orchard Centre in Didcot.

Developers Hammerson, who own the shopping centre, has also announced plans for 20 new shops as well as restaurants, cafes and open spaces.

The news broke on Monday and comes nine years after the first phase was built in 2005.

Hammerson now plan to submit an application to South Oxfordshire District Council in the New Year and open the new phase in the second half of 2017.

Public consultations will now be held in the Orchard Centre between 11am and 3pm on December 5 and 10am and 2pm on December 6 to reveal the plans.

Westgate revamp gets green light

• The new flats off Abbey Place and along Castle Mill Stream

CITY leaders heralded the £500million plans for Westgate shopping centre as a "huge improvement" for Oxford after they were given the go-ahead on Tuesday night.

Oxford City Council's West Area Planning Committee voted in favour of detailed plans for the scheme by eight votes to one at the Town Hall, in St Aldate's, after three hours of debate.

The city will get 70 new shops, including a flagship John Lewis store, Michael Kors fashion outlet and a five-screen Curzon cinema.

Westgate will also have covered public squares, a cycle hub with 583 spaces, an underground car park and 59 new homes off Abbey Place.

City council leader Bob Price said the redevelopment of Westgate was a "huge improvement" for Oxford.

By Jack Johnson

jack@taylornewspapers.co.uk

He added: "The current Westgate scheme has been embarrassing for far too long.

"We should applaud the quality of the design and the proposals show a very great attention to detail.

"It creates another new quarter for the city with shops, public spaces with attractive retail and leisure facilities."

Oxfordshire County Council leader Ian Hudspeth added: "This is an excellent step forward for Oxford city centre.

"This will revitalise the area and bring much needed jobs and investment. I am greatly looking forward to the work starting."

Oxford City Council first endorsed plans for the shopping centre in 2004 but in 2010

• Designs of the interior of the new Westgate

the Westgate Oxford Alliance became the new owners and unveiled a masterplan.

Outline permission was granted in March and following Tuesday's approval, building work will start at the beginning of next year with the centre opening in time for Christmas 2017.

The alliance's development manager Sara Fuge said: "We are delighted with the positive decision from Oxford City Council.

"We have been working hard over the last four years with local stakeholders to develop a scheme to deliver a world-class retail and leisure destination for Oxford and now look forward to starting work early next year."

But concerns were raised at Tuesday's meeting over the absence of affordable housing at the development.

Iffley Fields member Elise Benjamin voted against the plans and said: "It is foolhardy to allow this to go ahead without some element of social housing."

She added: "It is too big, we are a small city.

"Why are we trying to make Oxford look like everywhere else?"

However, other councillors on the committee voiced their support for the scheme.

Littlemore councillor John Tanner said: "This is a huge improvement on what is there now - it is long overdue."

Alex Hollingsworth, who represents Carfax, added: "I don't think anyone will mourn the loss of the existing car park and development."

Seventeen conditions have been bolted on to the approval including designs for a spire and bus routes via Queen Street.

Two new conditions - air quality monitoring and external design elements on the eastern sides of the development - were also added on Tuesday.

Committee chairman Oscar Van Nuijen said this could see "some changes" to the design but it does not prevent building work from starting next year.

KIDLINGTON: A 24-year-old man has been arrested after a woman in her 20s was raped in the car park of a Kidlington pub on Sunday.

The man was arrested on Monday and is currently in police custody.

It is in relation to an incident of rape in the car park of The Black Bull pub in Banbury Road at around 2am.

She had got off a bus from Oxford near the pub when the offender, a white man in his 20s, helped her with her bags before raping her.

Aldi work

DIDCOT: Building work on the town's latest supermarket is well underway.

Exposure

BURFORD: Police are searching for a man who exposed himself to a 17-year-old girl on the road between Holwell and Bradwell Grove near Burford on November 19.

At around 2.20pm, the girl was riding her horse along the road when a man drove past her, stopped his car and got out.

He was wearing just an orange T-shirt and trainers, and walked towards her whilst removing his shirt.

The girl promptly rode away.

The man is described as white, between 40 and 50-years-old, overweight, under 6ft and with short brown hair. He drove a dark red saloon car that had a red sticker in the right rear window.

Anyone with information is asked to contact PC Daniel O'Brien from Witney police station on the non-emergency number 101.

Wait is over for new Orchard Centre plans

• From front page

Russell Beresford, Hammerson's development manager, said: "We've been working on securing the right retailers for Didcot to deliver the extension of the Orchard Centre for a number of years and during a very tough retail environment."

"We're now at a point where the scheme can once again progress and we very much hope people will visit the event to see the plans and give us their views."

An M&S Simply Food Store could be situated opposite the petrol station in the Orchard Centre on land currently in Rich's Sidings.

Hannah Nichols, M&S spokesperson, said about the proposed store: "We are always looking for good store locations and do have an interest in Didcot."

By Jack Johnson

jack@taylornewspapers.co.uk

"However, at this early stage we have no further details to report."

John Cotton, leader of SODC, added: "It's great news that Hammerson is now able to progress with the next phase of the Orchard Centre."

"People living in Didcot and the surrounding area want more shops and amenities in the town centre and I am confident that what Hammerson is proposing will add to the growing reputation of Didcot as a great place to live."

Didcot Town council leader Eleanor Hards said she was "pleasantly surprised" when she found out the news.

She added: "I am sure the M&S will have its place."

"It will be interesting to see what else comes here in the way of shops."

The Oxfordshire Guardian revealed in July that SODC were in talks with M&S and Debenhams about phase two (right).

And the new centre will add a further 150,000sq ft to the existing 200,000sq ft, which makes up the first phase of the development.

Civic leaders and business owners have greeted the plans with positivity but with concern for the future of the Broadway and on Rich's Sidings, which would be engulfed by the new development.

Cllr Hards said: "I do hope affordable places will be found for the existing businesses because they are very useful and we need them in Didcot."

"The existing Broadway further up still serves the town and I would not like to think everything is gravitating towards that bottom end."

Di Chesterman, president of Didcot Chamber of Commerce and owner of craft shop No Two Things, said she was delighted that plans for phase two have come to light but expressed concern for the Broadway.

She continued: "It is terrifically good news for business, we're absolutely delighted."

"But it will not be possible for independent stores to move into it due to the level of rent."

"We would like to have some signage to make sure the Broadway does not die off."

However, Andrew Lee, who owns Didcot Calor & Paving Centre Ltd on Rich's Sidings, says his business is currently unaffected by the latest plans.

Mr Lee added: "I don't think it impacts on me. When I get something official I will start paying an interest."

Stay active

DIDCOT: A new exercise class for people with Parkinson's has been set up in Didcot.

Charity Age UK is holding its Big, Bold and Balanced classes at the All Saints Youth Community Hall in Roman Place every Wednesday from 11am to Midday.

The classes are funded by Sport England and encourage people with Parkinson's to stay active.

Shop assault

DIDCOT: Police are looking for two men who assaulted customers, a member of staff and damaged a window at a kebab shop on the Broadway on November 15.

The incident occurred at Delight 2 at 12.45am where one of the men kicked a female and male customer.

One of the offenders demanded chicken and, after being told it had sold out, reached across the counter and punched a member of staff.

They were removed from the shop before they re-entered and damaged a window.

Witnesses should call 101.

Didcot ready to get into the festive spirit

CHRISTMAS officially arrives in Didcot tonight with the town's annual street fair hitting the streets.

The Orchard Centre and Broadway will be full of festive spirit with this year's theme being 'heroes'.

A Williams F1 car and Red Arrows simulator will be in the town, while military cars will be in the traditional parade.

Street fair committee chairman Jeanette Howse, who will be dressing up as Mary Poppins, said: "We have got some amazing things this year."

"Hopefully the weather will stay with us and we just want the street fair to do well."

There was a rumour that boy band Union J, who shot to fame on X Factor in 2012, would be opening the event but Ms Howse said it was not true.

She added: "There was a rumour that they would come as part of the cystic fibrosis stand and we were happy for them to open it but that is not happening."

The fair will be held between 4pm and 9pm.

The grand parade will take place at 7pm.

TVP horse Albert up for top animal award

ATHAMES Valley Police (TVP) horse that has fought off angry protestors at a political rally and worked to protect the royal family during his 10-year career has been named as a finalist for a national animal award.

Albert, a 17-year-old horse from TVP's mounted section, was nominated in the RSPCA and Daily Mirror's Animal Hero Awards 2014.

The winners were announced at an awards ceremony at the Grosvenor House Hotel in London last night as the Guardian went to press.

It comes after Albert led an eight-horse team into the middle of angry protests between members of the English Defence League and anti-fascist demonstrators in Brighton in April 2012.

The horses became surrounded and protestors tried to pull officers off their saddles, but Albert remained calm and used his body weight to push them away.

"We all got surrounded," said PC Kevin Simmons from the mounted section.

By Adam Flinn

adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

"People were grabbing us and bottles were bouncing off our helmets."

"I am not one to be scared easily, but that was a scary day."

"But through the good bond that we have with our horses and our trust, we both looked after each other."

"All the horses, especially Albert, did a great job."

Albert has also helped to protect the royal family at events such as Royal Ascot, and also worked at football matches and the Olympics.

PC Simmons added: "He's a really good horse."

"We are all ecstatic that he has been named as a finalist, and it is a real honour to have one of the horses recognised for the work that they do for us."

He continued: "He is probably the next one to be retired, maybe in a year or two, but he will go to a good home when he does and spend the rest of his days in the field grazing."

A40 plan ready next year, says council

A PLAN for upgrading the A40 between Witney and Oxford is expected to be in place by the end of next year, Oxfordshire County Council revealed yesterday.

The council is hoping to have consulted on and selected the preferred options for work on the road, with construction expected to be completed by the end of 2019.

It comes after a workshop was hosted by the county council to discuss the next stage of the project with local councils and neighbourhood groups in the area.

Consultants have also been commissioned to look at what improvements can feasibly be made to the road.

David Nimmo Smith, county council cabinet member for transport, said: "I welcome this work to engage stakeholders in the early stages of developing a long term solution for the A40.

"Looking ahead, this will put us in a prime position to ensure the funding is made available on time, meaning the improvements, aren't delayed."

The project is being funded through the Oxfordshire Growth Deal, which has set aside £35million for improvements to the A40 between Oxford and Witney.

Drivers face more traffic misery on A34

By Adam Flinn

adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

MORE severe delays are expected on roads in southern Oxfordshire in the coming months as road closures on the A34 and Steventon Bridge start.

The Highways Agency are set to shut one carriageway of the A34 in each direction between the Milton and Chilton interchanges from Monday until May next year to do drainage work.

A 50mph speed limit will be in force during that time with overnight lane closures also planned, details of which have yet to be announced.

Highways Agency service delivery manager Guy Watts said: "This work will provide smoother and safer journeys for users of the A34 in this part of Oxfordshire."

"While work of this nature inevitably causes some inconvenience, we will aim to prevent as much as disruption as possible."

It comes as Didcot and Wantage MP Ed Vaizey revealed on Tuesday that the road on Steventon Bridge would be closed completely for eight months from February while electri-

• The A34 will be reduced to one lane between the Chilton Interchange (pictured) and Milton Interchange from Monday fication work on the railway underneath is carried out.

The project is part of ongoing works by Network Rail to electrify the Great Western Railway, which has also seen bridge closures around Wantage and Faringdon.

"I was able to negotiate a solution to the bridge on the A338 which means the road will only be closed for a few days over weekends next summer, but I regret this has not been possible at Steventon," said Mr Vaizey.

"This means, very unfortunately, that there is no alternative to closing the road while the bridge is raised."

"The closure of Steventon Bridge is undoubtedly going to be a major inconvenience for all local residents and for those of us who travel through the village regularly."

Work comes as Oxfordshire County Council's project to revamp the Milton Interchange into a 'hamburger' roundabout is due to start in January.

Plans are also in place to add north-facing slip roads at the Chilton Interchange in the New Year, around the same time as the Milton Interchange work.

Speaking last week, David Nimmo Smith, cabinet member for transport, said: "There will be reduced capacity on Milton Interchange but we will be managing the works to make sure the roundabout still works."

Man in 20s arrested following Faringdon baby death

A 21-YEAR-OLD man has been arrested following the death of a baby in a Faringdon house last week.

The man, from Faringdon, was arrested on suspicion of grievous bodily harm on November 17 after an 11-week-old boy collapsed the previous evening at around 6pm.

The boy was taken by ambulance to Great Western Hospital in Swindon before being transferred to Bristol Royal Hospital for Children.

He died of his injuries at the hospital at 10.30pm on November 18.

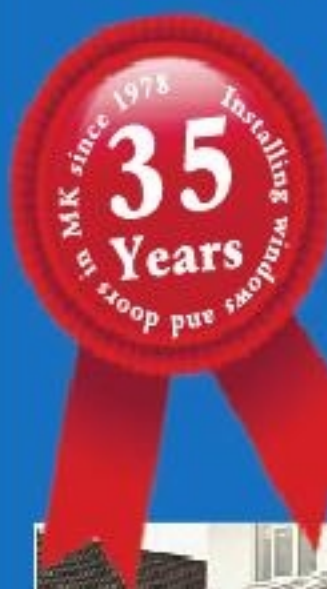

Senior investigating officer Det Ch Insp Kevin Brown said: "Thames Valley Police is treating the death as suspicious at this stage and an intensive investigation has been launched."

"However I would like to stress that this is a very complex case and we are keeping an open mind as to the cause at this moment."

"The force's specially trained family liaison officers are currently with the family at this extremely distressing time."

The man has been released on bail by police until February 2 next year.

18-year-old child rapist is sentenced to 10 years

A TEENAGER has been jailed for 10 years for raping and assaulting girls as young as 12 who he threatened to kill if they told police.

Archie Collicutt, 18, of Wilcote Riding, Finstock, was sentenced at Oxford Crown Court last Thursday.

He will serve 10 years in jail and an additional three years on licence.

Collicutt pleaded guilty to two counts of rape, two counts of sexual assault, two counts of sexual activity with a child and one count of the attempted rape of a child under 13.

The offences relate to incidents with seven girls between March 2012 and September 2013.

He raped a 13-year-old in March 2012 and said he would kill her and her family if she were to tell anyone.

In another incident in June 2013, he attempted to rape a 12-year-old girl and again threatened her and her family to stop her telling police.

Collicutt was arrested and charged in September 2013.

Investigating officer Det Con Ian Gibbard said: "Collicutt deliberately took advantage of young girls, abusing them and threatening them in order to stop them telling anyone."

"We are pleased he took the opportunity to plead guilty and spare the victims from having to come to court, but that in no way makes up for what he did to them."

"I would like to take this opportunity to commend their bravery in coming forward to tell police what had happened to them."

"We will always take any allegations of sexual offences seriously and so I urge anyone who is a victim of offences like these, or knows someone who is, to get in touch and we will help in any way we can."

The investigation was supported by the Kingfisher team at Cowley Police Station in Oxford - a collaboration between police, children's social care and health dealing with children who are being sexually exploited or who are at risk.

Bats delay Sandford hydro plans

• Sandford-on-Thames weir (picture by Richard Rees)

PLANS to install Archimedes screws at Sandford-on-Thames weir to harness hydro power have been withdrawn over fears it could harm an endangered species of bats.

Community energy company Low Carbon Hub submitted an application to build the hydro scheme to Vale of White Horse District Council on September 29.

A decision was due to be made on Tuesday but the application was withdrawn last week.

Low Carbon Hub's operation director Adriano Figueiredo said: "Concerns were raised about whether or not there were some endangered species that could be nesting there over the summer.

"We won't be able to tell now because it is not the right time of year."

"We agreed to withdraw the application and do some more work to make sure we are doing things properly."

Mr Figueiredo said he will meet the case officer in the next fortnight to discuss whether the application can be re-submitted with a view to a survey next summer or wait until after next year's findings.

The project is the brainchild of Sandford Hydro Community Group and could generate 1,600MWh of electricity per year - the equivalent to 385 homes.

It is believed a tumble drier caught fire, which crews moved outside.

County council's school partnership abandoned

PLANS for Oxfordshire County Council (OCC) back office services for schools to be run in Hampshire will not go ahead, the council's cabinet heard on Tuesday.

OCC had planned to enter into a partnership with Hampshire County Council that would see the latter take over some administration services as part of a cost-cutting measure.

It would have included school improvement services, foundation stage learning, services for vulnerable learners and governor services.

But council officers concluded that there were no clear financial benefits to the scheme, and that there were policy differences in education between the two authorities.

It was recommended that the council withdraw from the partnership talks, which the cabinet agreed with at their Tuesday meeting.

Jim Leivers, director for children's services at OCC, said: "Officers have concluded, with regret, that benefits will not be realised to a sufficient degree to be advantageous to either the council or the schools."

By Adam Flinn

adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

"It is clear also that a merger could take some time to become efficient and effective."

"This view has been confirmed and acknowledged in an exchange of letters between the director for children's services in Hampshire."

OCC's cabinet had recommended that consideration should be given to a partnership with Hampshire County Council back in April this year.

Melinda Tilley, cabinet member for children, education and families, said: "We just weren't going anywhere so we decided to abandon it, and I think we will be trying somewhere else."

"Hopefully it will save money, particularly around school to school support."

"I think the future for local government is to share services, so I think we will be looking around to see where we can do that."

Cllr Tilley added that the council would be looking at partnership opportunities with other councils sometime next year.

Famous author joins campaign against West Way development

AUTHOR Philip Pullman has signed an open letter calling for an alternative development at West Way in Botley.

West Way Community Concern campaigners sent the letter to Vale of White Horse District Council leader Matthew Barber, chief executive David Buckle and planning officer Stuart Walker on Monday.

The news comes as the Vale's planning committee will vote on plans to build a supermarket, cinema, hotel, gym, shops, 50 flats and 525 student rooms.

Mr Pullman, who lives in Cumnor and is renowned for 'His Dark Materials' trilogy, has lent his support to the campaign.

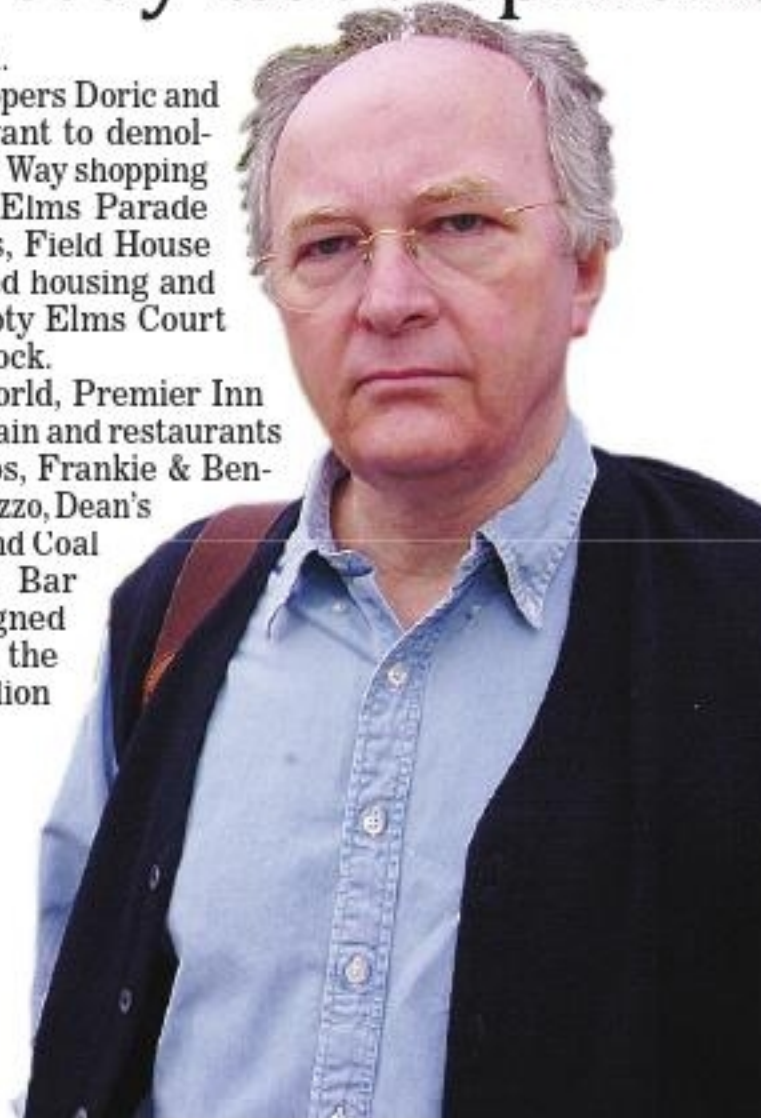

In the letter protestors have called for a development that "meets the needs of local people and businesses".

They want a design that retains Elms Parade, homes at Field House and keeps the current independent businesses in the area.

Developers Doric and Mace want to demolish West Way shopping centre, Elms Parade of shops, Field House sheltered housing and the empty Elms Court office block.

Cineworld, Premier Inn hotel chain and restaurants Chiquitos, Frankie & Benny's, Prezzo, Dean's Diner and Coal Grill & Bar have signed up to the £100million plans.

Sainsbury's delivery plan given the no vote

• Sainsbury's at the Orchard Centre (picture by 6point75)

SUPERMARKET chain Sainsbury's has been refused permission to extend delivery hours at its store in Didcot because it was deemed "unneighbourly".

South Oxfordshire District Council's planning committee voted against the proposal by five votes to one at a meeting in Crowmarsh Gifford last Wednesday, November 19.

Currently, deliveries to the Orchard Centre store can only take place between 6am and 9pm Monday to Friday, 6am to 8pm on Saturdays and 8am to 4pm on Sundays.

However, Sainsbury's wanted to extend the delivery times to

By Jack Johnson

jack@taylornewspapers.co.uk

11pm from Monday to Saturday and until 9pm on Sundays.

Didcot All Saints ward member Margaret Turner said extending delivery times would make life "unbearable" for residents in Station Road and White Leys Close.

She continued: "Lorries can turn up early and while they are waiting to deliver they keep their cooler units on which makes quite a bit of noise."

"They drag their crates along the ground and the impact of early mornings and late evenings is great for residents in this area.

"This is only going to make their lives more unbearable."

Officer Sharon Crawford had given a recommendation of approval for a temporary two-year period.

Didcot Town Council objected due to plans for housing in Station Road next to the unloading area.

Sainsbury's argued extended delivery hours would ensure more efficient distribution of goods, ease traffic congestion, and improve road safety as more vehicles could travel outside peak times.

However, councillors on the planning committee agreed with the objections.

Henley South member Jenni Wood said: "I don't think anyone would like to live near anybody delivering at 11 o'clock at night and I can't see a need for it."

"It is not fair on the neighbours."

Sonning Common councillor Paul Harrison added: "People will not get their eight hours sleep they need to because of the noise."

"It is totally unacceptable."

Crash victim tribute

THE family of a 26-year-old man who was killed in a car accident in North Leigh earlier this month have paid tribute to him.

Richard Reed, from Long Hanborough, died on November 2 when the car he was travelling in collided with a tree on the A4095 Woodstock Road.

His funeral took place at Oxford Crematorium last Wednesday.

A tribute released by his parents John and Angela, and brother Martyn, read: "Richard will be so very much missed and we will never see that beautiful infectious smile again."

"Such was the popularity of Richard, the service at the crematorium was attended by over 200 friends and family."

"We cannot express enough our deep felt gratitude and sincere thanks for all the wonderful tributes, flowers and cards from all his many friends.

"We will always be eternally grateful for the love and support they have given us during this incredibly difficult time. Thank you all so very much."

Fireman recalls saving kids from pub blaze

AFTER more than 30 years of service, a Burford fire fighter is hanging up his overalls this weekend.

Dave Hemming, 60, attended his last drill at Burford's Witney Street fire station on Tuesday and will retire from Oxfordshire Fire and Rescue Service on Sunday.

Mr Hemming, a motor technician at Dowley's in Carterton, says after 34 years it is time to call it a day.

He added: "You see the young lads careering up the ladders nowadays and I think to myself that it is time to retire."

"The best thing other than serving the community and helping to protect people is the buzz of the job, which I will miss."

"There is great spirit at the fire station with the other lads and we really work well together, so obviously I will miss that side of things."

A large blaze at the Blue Inn in Burford High Street in 1982, where two children were rescued from a window ledge, is among Mr Hemming's most memorable call-outs.

He continued: "I remember the fire engine turning the corner and me seeing these two young kids on a window ledge of the Bull Inn, which was well alight."

"Myself and my colleague were first in the building to deal with the fire and I recall just how hot the fire was."

"We had only just got a new longer ladder for our fire engine in the week before the fire and had only tested it out once."

"I really do not know what we would have done to save those children from that ledge if we had not had that ladder."

Burford's fire station commander Nick Bourke said: "Dave has been an exceptional professional and excellent servant to the community of Burford and Oxfordshire throughout his 34 years of service."

He added: "I am sure many people will join me in congratulating and thanking Dave for his important work and also in wishing him all the very best for the future."

Spotlight on osteoporosis

OSTEOPOROSIS, a debilitating bone disease, is a hidden condition that often people do not realise they have until it is well advanced.

However, over three million have been diagnosed with the disease and it leaves many people unable to look after themselves, it can cause posture and breathing difficulties, and can mean that even the smallest fall could fracture a bone.

As well as costing far too many people their independence, fractures caused by Osteoporosis cost the NHS a staggering £1.73 billion per year.

This is expected to rise to over £2.1 billion per year by 2020.

As an MP, I regularly visit local GP surgeries and local hospitals, and I am contacted by a large number of constituents experiencing health issues.

I recently visited the Nuffield Orthopaedic Centre, where I am a patron, for World Osteoporosis Day to hear about their life-saving work.

What struck me most was the poor levels of identification and the high-risk health implications if the disease goes untreated.

Every year there are more fractures due to fragile bones than there are heart attacks, and after visiting the Nuffield Orthopaedic Centre I feel strongly we must work hard to raise awareness of Osteoporosis and encourage people to seek help and get screened as soon as they see warning signs.

Mason takes charge of Helen House hospice

• Mason Fernley as boss of Helen & Douglas House last Thursday

News Bites

West Way plans

OXFORD: Plans for a new £100million West Way shopping centre in Botley were recommended for approval yesterday.

A report by Vale of White Horse District Council officers advised councillors to accept the plans ahead of their deciding vote at a planning committee meeting this Wednesday.

The plans would see the current West Way shopping centre, Elms Parade of shops, Field House sheltered housing and the empty Elms Court office block demolished to build a supermarket, cinema, hotel, gym, shops, 50 flats and 525 student rooms.

Councillors are to make a decision at Abingdon's Guildhall in Abbey Close from 6.30pm.

City brawl

OXFORD: A group of up to eight men are thought to have attacked two men outside Debenhams in George Street on November 15.

The incident at around 3am left two 24-year-old men unconscious - one with an injured cheek, the other with a broke ankle and damaged jaw.

The eight men, aged between 19 and 21, were seen running off towards St Giles.

Police are asking for witnesses to call 101.

Man robbed

OXFORD: A car parking attendant was robbed by two men in Osney Lane at around 6pm on November 18.

One man punched the victim, while the second stole money before they both ran off.

OXFORD-BASED hospice Helen & Douglas House employed a new boss last Thursday in 12-year-old Mason Fernley.

Mason, from Finstock in West Oxfordshire, helped run the Magdalen Road hospice for the day.

He was one of five children at the hospice to take part in a national Takeover Day giving youngsters the chance to take the reins in adults' jobs.

As Mason has the condition Deuchenne muscular dystrophy, which results in muscle degeneration, he can't take part in conventional work experience schemes so was offered this opportunity instead.

"It was an excellent day," said Mason. "In the morning we did an environmental audit going round Helen House looking for dangerous things that could cause harm to people."

By Adam Flinn

adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

"In the afternoon we helped create and direct a new fundraising video for Christmas shopping online and I wrapped presents for that."

"The best bit was being a boss."

Mason and his fellow young bosses Adam Carpenter, Daniel Ball, Sam Daly and Sian Davies were all presented with certificates at the end of the day.

Karin Hyatt, a teacher at Oxfordshire Hospital School who helped the youngsters during the day, was pleased with the work they did.

She said: "By the end of the day we had five young people who had gone home so much more confident and really good friends."

Higgs Hunters sought by Oxford scientist

AN OXFORD scientist is appealing for volunteers to take part in a project to view 25,000 images recorded at the CERN Large Hadron Collider near Geneva to find out if a new particle has been created.

Professor Alan Barr of the university's Department of Physics is the lead scientist for the Higgs Hunters project, which launched yesterday.

He and the Higgs Hunters team are looking for people to look for and tag sub-atomic explosions on the pictures caused when a Higgs boson particle 'dies'.

"If anything, discovering what happens when a Higgs boson 'dies' could be even more exciting than the original discovery that the Higgs boson exists back in 2012," said Professor Barr.

"We want volunteers to help us go beyond the Higgs boson barrier by examining pictures of these collisions and telling us what they see."

The pictures were taken during the ATLAS experiment, which saw protons smashed together at speeds of up to one billion kilometres per hour.

Simulations predict that new particles created as a result should leave noticeable tracks, which computers struggle to identify but can often be picked out by the naked eye on screen.

Professor Dave Charlton, spokesman for the ATLAS collaboration, said: "Perhaps volunteers will be able to spot new physics with their own eyes."

To take part in the project, go to higgshunters.org.

Puzzles

Sudoku

The objective is to fill a 9×9 grid with digits so that each column, each row, and each of the nine 3×3 sub-grids that compose the grid (also called "boxes", "blocks", "regions", or "sub-squares") contains all of the digits from 1 to 9. The puzzle setter provides a partially completed grid, which for a well-posed puzzle has a unique solution.

“WHICH” report April 2014. Independent hearing aid providers come out on top

ACCORDING to a “WHICH” report carried out in March and April 2014 Independent hearing aid providers were rated as the most satisfactory compared to Boots, Amplifon, Specsavers and Hidden Hearing.

An independent hearing aid audiologist is able to prescribe hearing aids from all manufacturers and find the exact system to suit your needs and budget. However some of the high street hearing aid retailers are tied to specific manufacturers therefore giving a limited choice.

Buying a hearing aid system is not just about the cost of the aid itself, you are purchasing an on-going package and so other things to consider are:-

1. Who is going to fit my hearing aids, and will I subsequently see the same person?
2. What is the level of ongoing aftercare and support after your hearing aids have been fitted?
3. Is the aftercare and support included in the price of the hearing aid system?
4. What is the length of the manufacturers warranty?
5. Can you trial the hearing system?
6. What are the ongoing costs i.e. batteries and wax guards?

Beware, some companies offer free guides on hearing aids and follow these up with home visits. They are often lead generation companies who operate in a sales based way. They may sell your information on to other large hearing aid providers who will target you with mail and telephone calls to entice you to buy their hearing aid systems. The same can also be said for websites which appear to offer comparatively low priced hearing aids.

If you are thinking of purchasing a hearing system it is important to compare the cost with a like for like hearing aid system and what aftercare is included. If the aftercare is not included in the cost of the system then how much will it typically cost you over the life of your hearing aids.

It can take time to fit and adjust a hearing system correctly so that it is working to maximise your hearing. Without a professional, attentive fitting, and programming by an experienced audiologist and a reliable aftercare service in place it is possible that your hearing aids will end up in a drawer somewhere because they failed to give you the benefits that you expected.

The difference between a good and a bad hearing aid solution is not usually the aid itself, since most aids are made by a handful of manufacturers. It's more to do with the professional fit and service given by the provider. Hearing aids are only as good as the expertise of the dispensing audiologist.

Keith Donaghy is an independent hearing aid audiologist with over 27 years experience of prescribing hearing aid systems in the Oxfordshire area. A consultation with him is FREE and he will happily help and advise you which, if necessary, hearing system will suit your lifestyle and budget the best. All with no obligation, what have you got to lose?

Book a free hearing consultation today either in Witney, Buckingham, Banbury or in the comfort of your own home.

Comic tale

HE'S tried podium dancing, he's worked on an oil rig.

But stand-up is for him, Marcus Brigstocke told the Guardian.

The comedian, actor and satirist is at The Theatre in Chipping Norton on Monday bringing his stand-up show 'Je m'accuse - I am Marcus.'

The 41-year-old said: "Oh man, it's the best artistic transaction you can make."

"I remember the very first time I ever did stand-up.

"I entered an open-mic comedy competition for Kiss FM at a club in Holborn in central London.

"The first four minutes went very badly, but the last three minutes went very well.

"I came second in the competition and thought, 'That'll do!'"

He added: "I still remember thinking as I put the mic back on its stand, 'Holy cow, if I can do this for the rest of my life, I'll be very happy."

"This is the thing I want to do now. I still feel that."

Brigstocke, from Guildford, also visited the Oxford Playhouse on November 5, and will visit The Mills Art Centre in Banbury on Tuesday, December 2, during his three-month tour.

It's been a massive turn around for the comedian, who has had major success in both radio and TV.

Before becoming a regular name on BBC Radio 4, Brigstocke had to defeat a number of demons against addictions relating to food, drink and drugs.

The funnyman also tried odd jobs as a podium dancer and working on an oilrig when he dropped out of Bristol University.

"It's a great big story. I've never told it before because then the press wants you to be the 'tragic alcoholic' or the 'eating disorder guy'. That's not me.

"I had five years of drinking and I've now had 24 years clean, so I just felt it was about time I told the story," he added.

"I don't want anyone to feel sorry for me though, it's not an inspiring tale of a remarkable turnaround as it's just something that happened.

"I won't be pouring out my heart and soul.

"It's just a really funny story."

Tickets for the gig have now sold out, but the Chipping Norton theatre has a ticket waiting list.

The show is suitable for anyone over the age of 14, and costs £16.

Back at the Cornerstone

FRESH-FACED folk and acoustic duo India Electric Company are at The Cornerstone Arts Centre tomorrow, November 28.

They are currently on a series of one-off concerts before they start their 2015 'Breathe Again' tour with Scottish singer Midge Ure.

"We performed at The Cornerstone earlier this year supporting Hazel O'Connor," Cole told the Guardian.

"It's a unique and brilliant arts facility and we had such a great crowd that night - we can't wait to come back."

"At least two audience members bought us a pint of local ale in the bar after the show. This constitutes a great night in our book."

It wasn't a traditional music merger for the pair.

Cole and Joseph met rock climbing in Dartmoor, and again at a chess club years later.

Last year the boys from Devon bagged a host of airtime on both BBC Radio 3 and BBC 6 Music.

They also played at the 2013 and 2014 Glastonbury festivals.

"The audience can expect a 1970's brown suit and a wide selection of instruments," The 24-year-old Cole said.

"We will be reminiscing eastern European-inspired themes, interspersed with muted guitars, accordion sub bass, beguiling violin and vocal heavy reverb."

He added: "Joseph plays the piano, violin, guitar, double bass, accordion, mandolin, banjo, and percussion whilst I play the guitar, mandolin and sing."

"When we're in Didcot, Joseph is hoping to find a skate park as he's just taken it up as a sport."

"And I'm hoping to find those two audience members who bought us a drink at our last show, so they can see our friend Ginny who lives nearby."

"It's a great town and a fantastic venue."

The performance is free and starts at 8pm.

1930's scandal on stage

• Caroline Langrishe as Margot
(Image by Flavia Fraser-Cannon)

A REVIVAL of Terence Rattigan's 1934 classic will bring his first play 'First Episode' back to life at an Oxford theatre tomorrow.

The play, written while Rattigan was an Oxford undergraduate, will take to the stage of The Simpkins Lee Theatre at The Lady Margaret Hall in Norham Gardens for one showing tomorrow, November 28, and two on Saturday, November 29.

The story focuses on, Bertie, Joan, Tony and David; a group of young students putting on a play.

The four manage to rope in movie star Margot Gresham to play the lead role, threatening their close friendships, when the students experience their first adult love affair.

"I'm very excited that it's coming to Oxford," director Tom Littler told the Guardian.

"Terence Rattigan wrote this play in the 1930's when he was a student at Trinity College, Oxford.

"It's very autobiographical and based on his time at the university."

Sir Terence Mervyn Rattigan, CBE was born on June 10 1911 in South Kensington, London.

After studying in Oxford, Rattigan carved out a successful career as a dramatist, writing 27 stage plays and six television plays.

By James Richings

jamesr@taylornewspapers.co.uk

But despite fame as one of England's most popular 20th century dramatists, Rattigan was a troubled homosexual who considered himself an outsider.

He died aged 66 in November, 1977, from bone cancer.

"First Episode" was considered to be very scandalous in the 1930's," Littler said.

"It was quite explicit (for its time) about sex and even homosexuality."

The 30-year-old added: "People forgot all about Rattigan's first play because he went out of fashion in the 1960's."

Littler, a former English student at The Lady Margaret Hall, said: "I shall be looking forward to my first Christmas in Oxford."

"My wife and I moved here in the summer, so it will be great to spend some time together and explore the city during Christmas."

Friday's performance starts at 7pm, and Saturday's start at 2pm and 7.30pm.

Tickets cost £15 to £35.

The show is suitable for anyone over the age of 12.

Welcome to Ford Logs

FORD logs are a leading producer of quality dry firewood based in Southern Oxfordshire and despite being a small company, we're a friendly company that are here to help you.

We specialise in producing quality dry Beech and Ash logs for woodburners, open fires and fire pits and despite being based in South Oxfordshire, we deliver all over Oxfordshire, Berkshire and Wiltshire.

Unlike our competitors, we do not use other mixed hardwoods and to give the consumer peace of mind that a quality product will be received, all of our logs are inspected before being loaded onto our vehicles.

Our firewood is UK sourced (ideally within a 40 mile radius of our yard) from local estates, Parklands, Managed Forests, local arborists and our own tree surgery business, with all of our wood being well seasoned and barn stored.

Beech and Ash produce greater BTU's therefore generating a longer burn, generating a greater heat source and saving you money.

Quality control is taken seriously within Fordlogs, knowing that the wood you receive is at its optimum and ready to burn.

All of our wood is constantly monitored with moisture reading devices, with no wood leaving the yard above 10/15% moisture content (unless specified).

All of our logs are delivered loosely and not off loaded 'Roadside'. We can tip very close to where the logs are to be stacked.

We also offer a professional Stacking service if required at very competitive rate.

Simply fill in the contact form via our website with your enquiry, or alternatively call us to discuss your individual requirements.

We specialize and offer quality well seasoned Beech and Ash logs that won't disappoint you.

Primarily as a landscaping company, we can guarantee a quality product, as we don't rely on logs as our main source of income.

We also offer quality low m/c Kindling, which is neatly packed in small bags (for ease in starting fires). We offer a complete stacking service starting from £10.00.

For more information you can visit www.fordlogs.co.uk or contact us on 07880 690 925, 01367 718 551 and logs@fordlogs.co.uk. In addition with that, you can visit our sister site for all your landscaping, design and grounds management requirements. Visit www.fordlandscaping.co.uk

Welcome to The Lamb Inn

A traditional and beautiful 18th Century Cotswold village pub.

We have settled here after a number of years working in some of the finest hotels and restaurants across the UK. Our aim is to offer a relaxed, welcoming village pub with great service, ambience and creatively home cooked food, produced in our kitchen.

Enjoy the atmosphere of a classic old English inn with beams and a real log fire crackling away on a cold winters night. Settle down with a pint of your favourite Brakspears ale or whatever your favourite tipple is.

Dogs are allowed in the bar area making us perfect for all those enjoying a good country walk or ramble with well behaved four legged friends.

We support Cotswold businesses and use suppliers such as Castles Butchers in Burford, Butt's Farm near South Cerney and Cacklebean Farm Eggs near Stow on the Wold.

Whether it's a coffee, a quick pint, a light lunch following a long walk, something in your lunch hour from work or a candlelit dinner, The Lamb Inn has something for everyone. We look forward to welcoming you.

It's Christmas...

BUYING the perfect Christmas present can be one of the most rewarding and kindest gestures a person can do, as your buying a gift for someone that you like, love and admire.

However, it can also be one of the hardest decisions a person can make, because so many ideas will be running through your head on what you should get for a certain person.

Usually, buying the perfect gift for someone shouldn't be that difficult.

You know your friends and family incredibly well. You know their interests and pet hates, so why on earth is buying 'the perfect present' really difficult?

It's because we are scared of their reactions.

Just imagine it: You've decided to book a romantic weekend away with the husband, but find out he is working away from home, the weekend you've planned on going away.

You've splashed out on this piece of jewellery that you think your other half would love, but when they see it, they're not keen on the design.

You've decided that you are going to spoil your children by purchasing that ONE toy you know your kids will adore, but when they rip open that wrapping paper and see what you've got them, it's the complete opposite of what they originally wanted.

Sometimes the perfect gift that you can buy could be the worst gift you can buy.

Now, after reading this, we don't want you pulling your hair out and start panic buying on things that might seem perfect.

We are here to help YOU find the gift that YOU know is perfect for a certain someone, and trust us; you know when a gift is perfect for someone.

So don't worry if you think there isn't enough time to get the gifts in.

There is still plenty of time until the big day on December 25, to get that perfect present for your loved ones.

Here are a few businesses in and around the Oxfordshire area that can help you with your gifts and treats dilemmas.

The Oxfordshire Inn Hotel

HERE at the Oxfordshire Inn Hotel, we've got a fantastic range of menus to make sure that your taste buds are satisfied over the Christmas period.

All of our mouth-watering menus are all three-course meals, and you'll be spoiled for choice with what we've got on offer.

Our Christmas party lunch is just £12.95 per person.

From two starters, three mains and three desserts, your brain will be struggling to decide what to choose from.

Why not start off with the Cream of Tomato and Basil Soup, followed by the Fillet of Salmon?

And to finish off, why not try the Chocolate and Orange Jaffa Sponge?

Those are just some of the options for the Christmas Party Lunch.

Our Christmas party dinner is just £21.95 per person.

With four starters, four mains and four desserts, this is one dilemma you want to have.

You can start off with the Deep Fried Breaded Brie Wedges that can be followed by the Hand Carved Breast of Turkey, and to wrap it all up, why not try the Classic Christmas Pudding?

And finally, to make this a Christmas to remember, why not have our Christmas Day Lunch at just £59.95 or £30 for children under 12.

With seven starters, five main courses and five desserts, this is like an extra present.

After you started off with the Lemon Sorbet, why not indulge yourself into the Homemade Nut Roast followed by the ultimate classic - Cheese and Biscuits.

Christmas wouldn't be Christmas without a fine selection of food.

To see the full list of our Christmas menus, please visit oxfordshireinnhotel.co.uk/christmas.

For more information, call us on 01869 351444.

Alternatively, you can visit us. We're located at Heathfield Village, Bletchington, Oxford, OX5 3DX.

Have a go at the really easy 'Twelve 12 Days Christmas Cake' using our lovely ale. Twelve Days is a dark brown strong beer, finely balanced, with a strong malt and nutty flavour with a pleasant sweetness. A perfect partnership with the fruits, spices and dark sugar.

875g mixed fruit
250ml
Twelve

Days beer (leaving the other half of the bottle to enjoy!)

225g butter
225g dark brown muscovado sugar
1 tablespoon black treacle
4 large eggs, lightly beaten
225g plain flour
2 teaspoons mixed spice

Day One

• Steep the mixed fruit in Twelve Days for at least 24 hours

Day Two

• Preheat the oven to 180C/350F/Gas Mark 4

• Grease and line 20cm round cake tin
• Cream the butter and sugar together, beat in the treacle and then slowly fold in eggs, flour and spice, a little at a time until thoroughly mixed together.

• Stir in the plump ale steeped fruits and put into tin

• Place in the oven for one hour, reducing the temperature to 120C/250F/Gas Mark 1/2 for a further 2 hours or until a skewer inserted into the centre comes out cleanly.

• Because of the quantity of liquid used in making this cake, it may take a little longer to cook, but don't worry, this is perfectly normal

• Leave the cake in the tin to become cold, then turn it out

British car maker carves out a new niche with their updated city car hitting showrooms

Spinning through cities in style

SMALL city cars come in many shapes and forms, yet with this new Adam ROCKS AIR, Vauxhall has carved out yet another sub-niche – the small urban crossover.

Essentially it's a slighter, taller riding (by 15mm) Adam, with beefed-up plastic cladding and silver-coloured skid plates and bumper inserts, with a choice of 17-inch or 18-inch alloy wheels.

Another key feature of the car is the electric fabric roof – available in a choice of three exterior colours – black, sweet coffee or light oak.

Under the skin there have been tweaks but perhaps most significant is the introduction of Vauxhall's new 1.0 direct injection turbocharged three-cylinder engine.

It's a real gem, proving to be smooth and sweet, even when worked hard.

Performance is certainly brisk, with this little tot whizzing to 62mph in 9.9 seconds and onto a 121mph top speed.

Despite the oomph on tap, it also returns a claimed combined 55.4mpg and emits a healthy 119g/km of CO₂.

In terms of ride, handling and com-

REVIEW: Vauxhall Adam ROCKS AIR
By Phillip Shoulder

fort, this ROCKS AIR sees an improvement over the standard Adam.

It might not have the driving dynamics of a Mini, but it still manages to be enjoyable – aided by that great engine and slick, precise six speed gearbox.

Like the standard Adam, the interior of this ROCKS AIR is hugely appealing.

Leather door trims, a coloured dash insert and a chunky two-tone steering wheel make the car feel interesting and premium.

The large fabric roof also adds extra interest – the only downside being that it does let through some extraneous traffic noise.

But best of all? It can open and close in just five seconds and be operated at speeds of up to 85mph.

Adam offers comfortable accommodation in the front: seats are supportive, and the driving position has plenty of adjustment. However, things in the back are seriously cramped and the 170 litre boot is very small.

Standard equipment levels are pretty good and include: rear privacy glass, 17-inch alloys, air conditioning, DAB, Bluetooth, and cruise.

Disappointingly, the very useful Intellilink infotainment system, which allows integration with your smart-phone using a range of downloadable apps, costs an extra £275.

Our test car is also packed out with optional goodies but this brings the price tag up to a rather steep £19,365.

Verdict: With distinctive rugged looks and access to wind-in-the-hair motoring, the new mechanical improvements allow the stylish city car to shine – but it's hard to ignore the high list price.

Jewell strives for more progress

FULL-BACK Seb Jewell says London Welsh's performance against Leicester Tigers last Sunday has set the benchmark for further improvement.

The Exiles suffered an eighth consecutive loss in the Aviva Premiership in last weekend's 26-5 defeat and are 11 points adrift at the bottom of the table.

But Jewell saw plenty of positives from the match and is now hoping Welsh can build on the performance.

The 27-year-old said: "There are still areas we need to work on but confidence in our defence, structure and system is a lot better than what it was.

"There is also a level of frustration as to why it has taken so long for us to get to this point but now that's the benchmark and what we need to build on."

Welsh showed a good reaction from the crushing 71-7 defeat at

By Jack Johnson

London Wasps a week earlier and Jewell set up Nick Scott to open the scoring against Leicester.

However, the visitors worked their way back into the match and two tries from hooker Harry Thacker put Tigers into a 12-5 lead at half-time.

Graham Kitchener and Robert Barbieri went over after the break to put the match beyond the Exiles.

Jewell said: "I think we always knew they were going to come back into it.

"We potentially could have got more out of the game but credit to Leicester for digging in."

The full-back has featured in all eight rounds of the Premiership this season and is enjoying being back at 15 after spells at centre last year.

He said: "I have been trying to keep myself fit and it is nice to be playing back at full-back with a bit more space and time on the ball.

"I have still got lots I can improve on, I'm making a couple of silly mistakes, but I feel I am contributing to the team and as long as I can keep myself in the side that is the main focus."

The Exiles face another tough test this weekend as they welcome champions and league leaders Northampton Saints to the Kassam on Sunday.

Jewell added: "It is going to be a tough game but that is what we are in the Premiership for.

"As long as we make a step forward like we did last week then hopefully come the New Year we can really start to make some strides."

Ross expecting Welsh to improve performance

ASSISTANT coach Gordon Ross says he expects a lot more from London Welsh despite an improved performance against Leicester Tigers.

The Exiles were beaten 26-5 by Tigers last Sunday and showed plenty of promising signs.

Seb Jewell's kick to set up Nick Scott for the opening try was one of them and Ross is now urging further improvement.

The 36-year-old fly-half said: "There were a few encouraging signs but we expect a lot more.

"There is still a long way to go but we have got to keep getting better.

"Losing 26-5 at home is not acceptable but it is a step in the right direction."

The Exiles welcome league leaders Northampton Saints to the Kassam Stadium on Sunday and Ross wants to see more of the skill that created last week's try in their match this weekend. He said: "There's no doubt that our players have got a very high skill level but we need to make sure we work harder so that comes out more frequently."

Another brace for Adi as City beat Stalybridge

TOP scorer Adi Yussuf netted his fourth goal in two games as Oxford City beat Stalybridge Celtic 2-0 last weekend.

City moved up to sixth in the Vanarama Conference North as a result and are now on a three-match unbeaten run.

Yussuf backed up the brace he scored against Brackley Town the week before with another double up in Greater Manchester last Sunday.

The 22-year-old scored on 24 and 63 minutes to take his tally to 12 goals this season.

Justin Merritt's side have taken 31 points from 20 games and are eight points behind current league leaders Barrow, who have three games in hand.

And next up for City is an FA Trophy third qualifying round tie at home to Lewes on Saturday.

The East Sussex club are currently third from bottom in the Ryman Premier League, a division below City.

PREMIERSHIP RUGBY IN OXFORD - BE PART OF IT

Whing pleased with United's progress

Barry hopeful for Saturday

WANTAGE Town manager Daniel Barry is confident Saturday's match at home to Bridgwater Town in Division One South & West will be on after two postponements in a week.

The Alfredians' game at Clevedon Town last Saturday and Tuesday's home match against Cinderford Town were both called off due to the wet weather.

But Barry is optimistic Saturday's game against 11th-placed Bridgwater will be on as he looks for his first win as Wantage manager.

He said: "The problem we had on Tuesday is that it rained all day.

"The pitch will be heavy on Saturday but it will definitely be on."

Barry had targeted four points against 18th-placed Clevedon and 13th-placed Cinderford and was disappointed they were called off.

He said: "It would have been nice to have games against teams around us just to see where we are but we go again against a team who are comfortable in the league.

"It has allowed us to have some training sessions and the squad will know each other a bit more."

Wantage will be without the suspended Sam Barder on Saturday, while George Reid and James Glover are unavailable.

Heavy defeat for Quins

OXFORD Harlequins lost a second game in succession on Saturday as they were thumped 53-5 away to National League 3 South West leaders Redingensians.

The hosts dominated the match throughout, with tries coming courtesy of Jamie Guttridge, Dave Massey and Gavin Dampies as Redingensians earned a 46 point lead.

Jack Robinson got a consolation score for 'Quins towards the end, although there was time for Ian Jeffreys to add another try for the hosts.

The result puts 'Quins eighth in the standings with 23 points, one behind seventh-placed Old Centralians, although they do have a game in hand.

Elsewhere, Grove RFC picked up their first win of the month at home to Maidenhead in the South West 1 East, winning the match 24-13.

But there was disappointment for Witney, whose 17-15 defeat to Leighton Buzzard was their third loss in a row.

ANDY Whing believes Oxford United are getting better and better despite struggling to break down a resolute AFC Wimbledon side last Saturday.

United are unbeaten in three games in all competitions and 19th in Sky Bet League Two, just six points off the top half of the table.

Whing, who has made eight appearances this season since recovering from a groin operation in the summer, saw the positives in last weekend's goalless draw.

The 30-year-old said: "We're starting to play how the gaffer wants us to play, I think we have done all season, but for longer spells.

"I think we're learning and getting better and better.

"Overall it is starting to come together."

United dominated the opening exchanges against the Dons without testing goalkeeper James Shea.

And it was U's keeper Ryan Clarke who was first called into action to deny Matt Tubbs and Adebayo Azeez.

United had a lot of the ball and looked to stretch the visitors but could only muster one shot on target in the first half through Alfie Potter.

The stalemate continued in the second half but both sides had half chances with Danny Hylton firing wide and Azeez testing Clarke once again.

United suffered a big blow on the hour mark as teenager James Roberts, who was making his home debut after three goals in two games, pulled up with a hamstring injury.

However, Michael Appleton's side continued to push for a late goal as the clock ran down but Potter's late effort was smothered by Shea.

United play out eight-goal thriller

AN EXTRA-TIME equaliser prevented Abingdon United from advancing to the third round of the FA Vase last Saturday as they drew a thrilling tie 4-4 with Littlehampton Town.

On Saturday, United were forced to come back from 3-0 before being denied the win.

George Landais' brace and a Dan Swain strike put Littlehampton in control but United came roaring back.

played as the Oxfordshire Guardian went to print last night.

Anacleot Odhiambo, Tom Melledew and Kieran Cochrane scored to level the tie and as the match entered extra time Andy Younie put United into a 4-3 lead.

However, Gray's late header saw the match end all square.

Elsewhere, Thame United

erred by Shea.

Despite United's frustration in being unable to break the deadlock, Whing was pleased with the performance.

He said: "We had a lot of the ball, a lot of patience, but we didn't have that final killer pass in the last third.

"That is what killed us but I thought our play up to the last third was very good.

"We're disappointed with the result because we thought they were there for the taking but we're not that disappointed with the performance.

"It is still four points and unbeaten in three games and we want to carry that on."

United are next in action on Saturday when they make the short trip down the A40 to face Cheltenham Town.

Sport Bites

Stars beaten

ICE HOCKEY: Oxford City Stars remain bottom of the National Ice Hockey League South 1 after a 4-1 defeat against Milton Keynes Thunder last Sunday.

Stars beat Thunder 2-1 the previous week but they were unable to record back-to-back wins for the first time this season when they met again at the weekend.

Next up for Stars is second-placed Streatham Redskins at Oxpens this Sunday.

Hawks defeat

HOCKEY: Oxford Hawks men's 1s slid to a 3-1 loss at home against top of the league side Sevenoaks on Saturday.

The visitors battled to an early lead with two first half goals.

The first off a short corner was put away after the flick hit a Hawks leg.

But the second finish was slick, piercing Hawks' defensive D through clever short passing before a fierce shot.

Hawks fought back with strong possessive passing which lasted into the second half, but lacked attacking finish.

A Sevenoaks third goal fired Ethan Chapman into action and efficient passing from the halfway line was put forcefully into the backboard by George Creed.

Hawks still lie fourth in the table in the South League Premier Division 1 but slip to seven points behind leaders Sevenoaks and six behind joint second and third.

Oxford Hawks women's 1s also faced a tough match at home against top of the table Slough.

The visitors opened the scoring but Hawks responded with an attack which saw Lucy Millington bury the ball with a reverse stick strike.

A Caro Harris goal for Hawks edged them into the lead but Slough responded.

Both sides set their defence which neither team could break for a 2-2 draw at the whistle.

The equaliser saw them move up to sixth in the table in the Investec Women's Hockey League Women's Conference West standings.

Appleton eyes new signing for United

MICHAEL Appleton is remaining positive that he will be able to add to his Oxford United squad on the last day of the loan window today.

The U's head coach has taken advantage of the loan system in recent weeks with Chey Dunkley joining from Kidderminster Harriers until January.

Although the deadline is today, Appleton is hopeful of bringing in a new face, while players could also leave the club on loan.

He said: "We have certainly identified a couple of players that we would like to do something with.

"But there are a couple of players that need to go the other way."

Appleton has praised the competition within his squad in recent weeks and hopes a new face can further intensify it.

He added: "The lads who have got the shirts; it's up to them to keep hold of them.

"If we can continue with the competition for places and even bring in more faces then performance wise we will keep to a standard that we expect most weeks."

DIDCOT READY FOR MERTHYR

Boss wants repeat of Wimborne win for weekend test against Welsh rivals

DIDCOT Town's joint manager Ian Concannon is urging his players to replicate last week's impressive performance against Wimborne Town when they take on Merthyr Town in the FA Trophy on Saturday.

A John Mills hat-trick and goals from Pablo Haysham and Matt Clark saw Diddy thump 10th-placed Wimborne 5-1 at Loop Meadow last Saturday.

It means Diddy extend their unbeaten league run to 11 games.

Didcot make the trip to Wales this weekend to face fellow Division One South & West side Merthyr in the third qualifying round of the FA Trophy.

The Martyrs are unbeaten on their artificial home pitch this season and have already beaten Didcot at the Cigg-e Stadium in the league.

Concannon said: "Last weekend was the best performance since Jamie (Heapy) and I took over and we made a team that are right up there look plain average."

"It set the benchmark to show the lads how good they can actually be."

By Jack Johnson

jack@taylornewspapers.co.uk

"It was as good as they can get and we need to do it when it really matters again this Saturday."

Only a place and five points separate The Railwaymen and second-placed Merthyr in the league.

A win this weekend would see Didcot go into the hat for the first round and earn £4,000 in prize money.

Concannon added: "We're looking forward to it."

"Our team has changed significantly since we were beaten there - we had no Sam Elkins, Pablo Haysham, Jack Longford or Andy Ballard."

"We're full of confidence, we're playing well and we know what to expect from them."

"As a team we play on it (the artificial pitch) once a season and they play on it a once a fortnight so the advantage is for them but it's a cup game."

"League positions go out the window and whoever wants it the most will come out on top and hopefully that will be us."
